

T+L Summer Shortlist: What to Do in San Diego

Summer is here. And this year, Travel + Leisure's Summer Shortlist names the top destinations that are heating up in travel.

In San Diego, there's something for just about everyone. For the adventure-lovers in your family, head to one of the area's stunning beaches and paddle out into the Pacific ocean to see if you can catch a wave or two among some of the gnarliest surfers in the world.

Related: How to Pack for a San Diego Getaway

To please the younger folks in your crew, head over to Balboa Park, where you can explore miles of trails, check out the gardens, and play all day long at the World Famous San Diego Zoo.

San Diego also has plenty to offer the foodies in your life, including some of the best Mexican restaurants north of the border, and more than 130 local breweries.

Truly, San Diego is home to the endless summer. So go ahead, book your tickets now. We'll be waiting for you on La Jolla beach.